Ms. Wallace- Librarian

Check in at the front desk everyday when you arrive in the library. This will ensure you do not get marked absent accidentally.

Please feel free to use computers as you need them. You may have lidded drinks at computers but no food.

Clean up after yourself. Please return any library book you are using to the browsing shelves, throw away any garbage, and leave your area better than you found it.

You will receive citizenship points and class points for being present and on-task. Unexcused absences will receive a 0 in the grade book, as well as lower your citizenship rating.

Be productive. Limit your time on your cell phone, games, etc. until you have completed all of your work. Leaving before the bell rings will result in an absence.
