

How to obtain a Utah drivers license

1. You need to get a Utah driving permit from the driver's license division.
<http://dld.utah.gov> This can be acquired at the age of 15 years old. You must hold a permit for six months before you can get your official license. But you can carry it for a year before your 16th birthday.
2. The drivers Ed class, does not teach to your permit test, ideally you should have your permit before you take the class.
3. Classroom instruction, every student under the age of 19 in the state of Utah must take and pass a drivers Ed class with 80% or above with curriculum and attendance.
4. Driving instruction, every student is required to drive six hours and observe in the car six hours with an instructor if you are under the age of 19 years old. This happens through in car instruction range driving instruction and simulations.
5. Final driving test, your final driving test for your License will be administered at the completion of driving hours.
6. Fees for drivers' education and driving instruction, please refer to school fees schedule. Fees for make up lessons and driving will be applied by the school fee schedule so attendance and punctuality is important and required.
